“A Peculiar Perspective” Exhibit at The Hall

City of Manassas, VA . . . From Sept. 1 through Oct. 31, John Hartt will display his solo art exhibit at The Hall at City Hall. The exhibit is open to the public Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is free.

Hartt is a Manassas artist who is known for his colorful and out of the ordinary oil paintings. His body of work, A Peculiar Perspective, will make you smile, laugh, scratch your head in bewilderment or just throw you off balance little. An artist’s reception will be held on Sept. 1 from 5 to 8 p.m. at Manassas City Hall, 9027 Center Street in Historic Manassas.

John Hartt lives and works in Manassas Virginia. He is a member of the Workhouse Arts Center in Lorton, VA where he displays his work in the Arches Gallery. John can be found online at www.jortt.com and followed @jo.rtt on Instagram.

Exhibits in The Hall at City Hall rotate on a monthly basis and include different forms of visual art. For more information about art in the City of Manassas, visit www.manassascity.org/art.
